Adam Ogodzinski Awarded Verdict for $5,000 Against Independence Pastor by Jury Here

DISMISSED BEFORE YEAR'S CONTRACT EXPIRED, CHARGED

Also Given Damages for Injuries Wife Sustained in Being Ejected from Choir Loft

AFTER four hours' deliberation, a jury in circuit court awarded Adam Ogodzinski $5,000 damages against the Rev. Andrew Garm, pastor of the Polish Catholic church at Independence, and Charles Marsalek, and Simon Skrock, trustees of the church.

Ogodzinski was organist at the church. He contended that he had left his home in Philadelphia and gone to Independence to play the church organ and direct the choir. He declared he had a year's contract with the church and that he was dismissed by Father Garm before the contract expired. On the same Sunday that Father Garm ordered Ogodzinski to quit his post as organist, Ogodzinski, who sang in the choir, was ejected from the choir loft by Marsalek and Skrock, who acted on orders from Father Garm.

As a result of the excitement and alleged injuries sustained by Mrs. Ogodzinski when removed from the church, she suffered a severe physical impairment. Ogodzinski brought suit for damages for his wife's condition and also for punitive damages because he had been dismissed before his contract had expired.

The case was first tried before Judge Richards of Spaulding. Ogodzinski won a verdict for $5,000. The defense appealed to the supreme court, where a new trial was ordered on errors in instructions to the jury. Mrs. Ogodzinski's damages suit against the same defendants as those in her husband's case, was heard before County Judge Anderson of Whitehall. She was awarded $8,000 damages. This case she was appealed to the supreme court and likewise was returned for a new trial on the same ground as in Ogodzinski's case.

Owie & Hale and John A. Markham were counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Ogodzinski and Higbee & Swennes and John Kullig for the defendants. Adam Ogodzinski's case was started before Judge Fritz of Milwaukee, sitting on the bench here in place of Judge Higbee, last Monday, and was concluded at noon Saturday.

Mrs. Ogodzinski's case probably will be called for trial next Wednesday morning. Judge Fritz left for Milwaukee Saturday night and will not return until Wednesday morning. The big case also has been excused from service until that time.

Arms Conference Would Meet Decision if it Neglected This Phase, Jay Holds

WASHINGTON.—By The Associated Press.—Making what was considered a direct allusion to the naval question, Senjuro Yokota, president of the legislative bureau of the Japanese cabinet, in an address here Saturday declared the true and impartial spirit of disarmament should take into consideration not only the existing strengths of navies but also the potential powers of each country.

Mr. Yokota expressed the opinion that if the present conference neglected the importance of potential power, by which he meant general industrial capacity in supplying war material in time of emergency, it might meet with the disapproval of the great world of posterity.

Griffith, Sinn Fein Foreign Minister, to Return to Ireland. Others to Follow

BELIEF GOVERNMENT WILL

Ulster Refuses to Give up Her Northern Parliament.

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—After two conferences in Dublin Saturday with Eamonn De Valera, the Sinn Fein delegates in the Irish conference returned to London Saturday night. It has been intended, according to statements at the Sinn Fein public department here, that only Arthur Griffith, Sinn Fein foreign minister, would return Saturday night and that the others would follow later.

It was expected the reply of the Daily Eireann cabinet to the latest British proposals would be flatly "yes" or "no" and that in either event Prime Minister Lloyd George, upon Mr. Griffith's return, would decide the government's future action. But the news that all the delegates were on their way here was taken to indicate there would be further discussion of details, giving rise to hope that a final break in the negotiations might be averted.

It was understood the Sinn Fein delegates were bringing the Sinn Fein cabinet's last word and if the premier should be able to meet any additional points they might raise, he would submit the new plan to Premier Sir James Craig of Ulster by Tuesday. In the event of rejection of the proposal by Sir James, it was indicated that the next move might be the resignation of the cabinet members as a prelude to a general election.

If an agreement should not be reached between Sinn Fein and the government, the new plan, it is understood, will not be submitted to the Ulster premier. In some quarters, belief was expressed that the military would be given command of the Irish situation, immediately. In other circles, however, it was supposed the government would publish all the correspondence on the Irish situation, and ask the electors later for a mandate to deal with the situation.

Ulster to Keep Parliament

BELFAST.—By The Associated Press.—Under no circumstances will Ulster give up her northern parliament for an all-Ireland legislature declared John Miller Andrews, minister of labor in the Ulster cabinet.

"On behalf of the northern government, I tell you," he asserted in an address to Killiney, County Down, "that under no circumstances are we prepared to give up our parliament or to agree to enter an all-Ireland one, dominated as it undoubtedly would be by men who are avowed enemies of Great Britain, whose aims are not our aims, whose ways are not our ways."

His opponents show a spirit of reasonableness and a real desire for peace, as we have done.

LANCASTER, Ohio.—George Fraire, who moved his wife and 15 children from Hocking county to North Berne two years ago, thereby doubling the census enumerator and causing the census taker to change it from a hamlet to a village, Saturday literally wiped the place off the map again by moving away.

Fraire operated a general store and was mayor and postmaster. Owing to the removal of this big family, North Berne now has a postoffice and will receive its mail by rural delivery out of Lancaster. Petitions are being filed for Fraire's return.

COURT REFUSES TO DISCHARGE JURY
SATURDAY NIGHT

Seventeen Ballots Taken, all 11 to 1 for Acquittal; "Hung Jury" Seen

SAN FRANCISCO.—The jury in the Rescoe Arbuttle manslaughter case must reach a decision or continue its deliberations at least until ten a. m. Sunday morning. Judge Harold Loderbach, the trial judge, denied a request of counsel for both sides late Saturday that the jury be discharged.

The judge said he would consider Sunday morning, if no verdict had been returned by that time, whether he would hold the jury longer. The request for its discharge was made on the ground that the jurors were "tired out and that it would be courteous to keep them balloting further."

It was made at approximately six p. m. after the jurors had been out of the court room more than 25 hours and had spent nine hours in balloting or discussion.

The jury was given a recess of two hours for dinner at 6:30 p. m. Corridor gossip said seventeen ballots had been taken, all eleven to one in favor of acquittal. Although there was another report that the balloting had reached 5 to 3 for acquittal.

Arbuttle's counsel charged throughout the day but it could be seen plainly that the strain was telling on him. He spent most of his time chatting with counsel and other friends.

FALL-SOWN CROP IN NORTH HEMISPHERE
IN GOOD CONDITION

WASHINGTON.—The fall-sown cereal crops of the northern hemisphere are generally entering the winter in a fair to good condition, with the exception of some areas where drought has obtained according to reports Saturday to the department of agriculture. Recent rains benefited the new crops in Germany and Austria.

The prospect for the wheat harvest in British India and Canada continued good, the reports show, and condition of the winter crop in the United States is favorable throughout, the north central states, but the continued drought is causing much damage throughout the lower plains region.

Rain is also badly needed in the Pacific northwest states. The condition of the winter crop in the United States was said to be good.

HAVRE.—By The Associated Press.—Charles W. Morse Saturday night was awaiting further word from United States Attorney General Baughman regarding the ship builder's request to be allowed to remain in Europe until January 5 for medical treatment. Mr. Morse, who arrived here from New York Friday on the steamer Paris, has been ordered to return on the first boat by American federal officials, who are investigating his shipbuilding contracts during the war.

Earlier in the day he had received a cablegram from the American attorney general instructing him to return to America as soon as possible, but before this message had arrived Mr. Morse had sent a cable message requesting that he be allowed to consult Professor Macchiavani, a Rome specialist, before returning to America.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Bert Herzog, former prohibition enforcement official, was found guilty of bribery charges, by a jury in federal court late Saturday afternoon. The jury voted guilty on eight counts. Sentence was deferred until Tuesday, by Judge F. A. Gilger, and Herzog was released on a new bond of $15,000.

The maximum sentence under the verdict is three years on each count, or twenty-four years in all, and a fine totaling three times the amount of the bribes accepted.

Herzog's attorneys asserted that they will appeal to the circuit court of appeals.

GERMANY PLANS TO

GOODS TO PAY DEBTS

Asks Allies Consent to Market Manufactured Products in East to Meet Reparations

U. S., ENGLAND AND FRANCE WOULD FURNISH THE CAPITAL

Russian Industries Restricted to Manufacture of Raw Materials

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.—Germany's latest plan for meeting her reparations obligations to the allies includes the formation of a consortium for economic exploitation in Russia to be participated in by Germany, France, Great Britain and the United States, according to an article published Saturday by the Journal des Debats. The newspaper, although not divulging the source of its information, declares this is the plan on which Hugo Stinnes, the German industrial magnate, and former German Minister of Reconstruction, have been negotiating for the last few days in London.

As outlined by the Journal des Debats, the plan includes the following general stipulations:

The United States, England and France would supply Germany with capital necessary to transport raw materials sufficient to assure a German monopoly in supplying Russia with manufactured products. The Russian industries would be restricted to the production of raw materials, sufficient to repay Germany for the manufactured products transported into Russia.

The profits thus realized from Germany's exploitation in Russia would be divided among the members of the consortium in such a way as to insure the payment of Germany's reparations. Meanwhile, Germany would be allowed to benefit by a monopoly permitting a test of the above plan to be made.

FIGHT TO FINISH
LOOMS BETWEEN
PACKERS, UNIONS

"Big Five" Tells Employees they Will be Discharged if they Strike; Unions Defiant

CHICAGO.—A fight to the finish between the "Big Five" packers and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers of North America was in prospect Saturday as each side virtually finished plans for the strike of meat packing house employees ordered to begin Monday.

The packers Saturday posted notices that employees who go out on strike will lose their jobs and also advertised for men to take the places of strikers. The union officials were equally firm and indicated they had no intention whatever of conceding from their stand when they advised packing house workers in Kansas City, Kas., to disregard orders of the Kansas court of industrial relations to appear before it and to put the strike into effect. The court of industrial relations issued subpoenas for the officers of the Kansas City locals.

Later in the day the Kansas court issued a temporary order restraining either the packers or the union from taking any action whatever. This constitutes a virtual injunction against the strike in the state of Kansas, it was asserted.

Spokesmen for the "Big Five" packers, when informed by the Associated Press Saturday night of the restraining order issued by the Kansas court, said that containing the "present status, terms and conditions of employment" would not in any way affect the packers' position. The wage cut agreed to by plant assemblies was not agreed to by plant assemblies, and the spokesmen for the packers construed the order to mean that it was to be continued, although stating that it would be necessary to read the order before expressing a definite opinion.

BUT JOINS OFFER TO SURRENDER PART OF CHINA LEASES

Meanwhile Big Three Work Privately on Agreement Reported to be of Wide Scope

PLAN PACT OF NAVIES, FORTS AND PACIFIC POLITICAL POINTS

Conjecture Active in Guesses at Nature of Reported Agreement

WASHINGTON.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Japanese delegation Saturday declared before the committee on far eastern questions of the Washington conference that Japan has no intention at present of "relinquishing the important rights she has lawfully acquired" in Port Arthur. This decision, it was explained, was based on rights acquired from Russia, with the added virtual consent of the United States, France and Great Britain, at the same time as the formation of the international consortium.

Emancipation of China from foreign control was, however, said to have moved forward considerably Saturday at a conference of the big powers through proposals from Japan, Great Britain and France for relinquishment of large and important areas of their leased territory in China.

Held Big Advance

The proffers of the three powers were conditional and limited, not including all their leased areas, but were declared officially to be one of the most important developments of the far eastern conference.

Definite undertakings were deferred for further discussion at the next meeting of the far eastern committee next Wednesday, and three days adjournment was taken so that the discussions between China and Japan on Shantung and the studies of sub-committees on other Chinese questions could proceed.

Meanwhile the naval ratio negotiations, apparently at their most favorable stage since the arms conference began, is awaiting on Tokyo.

Big Agreement Under Way?

Outward developments contributed nothing to the status of the naval discussions but the impression grew in usually well informed circles that the American, British and Japanese governments were considering, in preliminary form, an agreement that not only would include acceptance of the American 5-5-2 rule but would have to do as well with Pacific fortifications and some of the political problems of the far east.

Definite action, however, will have to wait for several days while the Japanese delegation works out the attitude of their home government toward the newest phase of the negotiations as it shapes up from Friday night's conference between the heads of the American, British and Japanese delegations.

In the meantime what actually occurred at the meeting of the "Big Three" is a closely guarded secret. All authoritative spokesmen, refusing to take notice of the resulting crop of guesses, conjectures and surmises as to what "understandings" or "compromises" might be in contemplation.

France Leads Off

When the question of the conference agenda of removal of special spheres of influence in China was brought up Saturday, France offered to relinquish her leased territory of Kwang Chow providing similar concessions would be made by other powers having such special spheres of influence. Japan followed with an offer.

REDUCTION IS VOLUNTARY ON

Interstate Commerce Commission Allows Roads to Disregard All Usual Restrictions on Schedules

DECREASE EFFECTIVE FOR SIX MONTHS AS EXPERIMENT

New Tariffs Will be in Force in all Sections Except New England

WASHINGTON.—Voluntary railroad proposals for inauguration of a ten percent decrease in freight rates on practically all farm, range and orchard products in the United States, outside of New England, were accepted Saturday by the interstate commerce commission.

Orders were issued allowing the railroads to disregard all usual restrictions in making up the new rate schedules, as well as such violations of the long-and-short-haul clause of the interstate commerce act as might be brought about by percentage reductions in making up the rate schedules as well as such violations of the long and short haul.

For Six Months' Experiment

The orders also permit the rates to be into effect on one day's notice "at an early date and in as inexpensive a manner as possible" for six months experimental period.

The commission left standing its order of October 20, requiring an approximate 10 1/2 per cent rate decrease on grain, grain products and hay throughout the entire trans-Mississippi district, which the railroads were later instructed to put into effect by December 28. The railroad executives, in applying to the commission last week, suggested that the general 10 per cent decrease on agricultural products which they contemplated should apply to the western grains and hay as well as to the other commodities and become a substitute for the 10 1/2 per cent. No mention of this point in the railroad procedure was made by the commission Saturday, except that grain, grain products and hay in western territory were omitted from the permissive orders accepting the general decrease.

Further Steps Necessary

While the commission swept away all administrative barriers to the 10 per cent decrease, it was pointed out that further steps would have to be taken by the railroad managements before the lower rate basis actually comes into effect. The commission's failure to consider the 10 per cent decrease on grain and hay as a substitute for the greater reduction it previously had ordered, it was said, might bring about requests for conference.

The commission's investigation into the reasonableness of the general level of transportation rates in the United States will begin next week and if the railroads are disposed to withdraw their voluntary offer, the tariffs on the agricultural products may be left to adjudication in that proceeding.

INVESTMENTS

Note: This is the eleventh of a series of articles on investments prepared for the La Crosse National Bank by W. E. Wacker. Another will appear next Sunday.

"How safe will my money be?" That's the most important question the investor has to ask himself in considering any investment. Stated somewhat differently, the question is, "What security lies back of my investment?"

Security includes not only real and personal property but stability of earning power and management as well. Security for interest payments must be considered as well as security for the principal of an investment.

The question of earning power as security assumes more importance in certain types of investments than it does in others. Public utility companies, for instance, that is, corporations of a semi-public nature furnishing light, heat, transportation, etc., have earnings that fluctuate less widely than do those of most industrial concerns. In many states public utility companies are under supervision of some regulatory body as a stabilizing medium. Earnings in industrial concerns depend to a greater extent upon management in the face of keen business competition where one concern profiting must usually do so at the expense of others.

In the final analysis, however, safety depends upon the amount of property in good condition owned by the company, also upon its capitalization, the earnings, and the priority of liens that may exist.

In considering the security for an investment it is advisable to consider the form of the security. For although a business may possess property enough to secure its loans, the property may be such that nobody wants it. It may be impossible to sell it for some time to come, then only at a loss. The security may be in the form of raw material that would be hard to realize upon.

Assets of an organization as security may be said to be divisible into two parts, liquid or quick assets and fixed assets. Quick assets include cash, Liberty Bonds or such finished products or goods on hand that could be readily converted into cash. Fixed assets include such things as land and buildings, other real estate, etc. It is well to consider the form of a company's assets in order to determine about how soon money invested could be returned if the company should fail, assuming that the assets are sufficient to cover its outstanding liabilities.

Where can this information and much other pertinent information that should be known about an organization before investing in its paper be secured? Nothing tells as much about a company or corporation as does its financial statement and a copy of the latest statement should accordingly be secured and analyzed before an investment is made. It is important to notice whether the statement records the condition of the company before or after the sale of the present issue of stock or bonds. The statement will appear much more favorable as a rule after the cash is received from such sale and the fact that it contains or does not contain a record of the current issue is important to consider.

The average man or woman who is not engaged in credit work or accounting has little opportunity to analyze financial statements. The average banker, on the other hand, is engaged continually in making loans, granting credits, advising on investments, all of which require that he be able to diagnose the condition of a concern, feel its pulse, as it were, and decide whether or not its stock of bonds comprise a wise investment at the price offered.

It is because your banker possesses this experience in analyzing statements and investments that you should consult him freely on matters of this kind.

GUERNSEY SALE IS BIG EVENT OF
WEEK AT SALEM

Pure Breds With Cow Testing
Records Bring Good Prices
at Sale on Wednesday
(BY W. L. SPEERSTRA)

The Guernsey breeders of La Crosse county staged their fifth annual sale at West Salem Wednesday, November 30.

At 1:30 p. m., H. W. Griswold, sales manager, opened the sale by announcing the terms of the sale.

The first animal brought into the sales ring was a three-year-old cow, consigned by H. D. Lovejoy of West Salem and in about a minute it was sold to W. S. Wilbur, Tomahawk, Wisconsin, for $170.

In this sale, as in most sales, the first animals were sold for less money than they were worth in proportion to the rest of the sale.

The real excitement of the sale came when Ada, of Prairie Ranch, No. 92781, a five-year-old cow of exceptionally fine type and quality, backed by an A. R. record of 7214 pounds milk and 224 pounds of butter fat in class 12, E, was being sold.

This cow was consigned to the sale by C. W. Wichner, of Baraboo, and bought by George A. Balier of La Crosse, Wis., for $540.

The bidding in this sale was brisk from start to finish. The first pure-bred sold for $170 and the last for $177.

Young pure-bred bulls were sold.

The second animal in the ring was a March bull, sold to A. F. Miller, Winona, Minnesota, for $135.

One of the most noticeable features of the sale was the fact that all the cattle with records back of them were in great demand at great prices.

A beautiful three-year-old heifer was being sold and the bids came fast, up to about $240. From there on the bids were small and far between, up to $260.

The auctioneer was unable to get more bids and was ready to say "sold," but just at that moment the man who had consigned her stepped on the platform and gave the record that she has been making in their local cow testing association and from then on the bids increased to $325.

The cow testing association was worth $65 to that man on just one cow.

In the grade cow and heifer sale which followed immediately after the pure-bred sale, a five year old grade cow sold for $215.

This cow produced, in the local cow testing association the last two years, 340 pounds of butter fat each year.

In both the pure-bred and grade sales the cows that had either A. R. records or cow testing association records were in greater demand and brought more money than did the untested animals.

Every sale produced more evidence that the cow testing association is worth more in dollars and cents than it costs.

As soon as the sale started, all seats and standing room was occupied by people interested in good Guernsey cattle. Everywhere in the crowd were bidders from Iowa, Minnesota and other parts of Wisconsin, some coming from as far east as Elkhorn, Wis.

Forty-one pure-breds brought $7,480, and averaged $182.44 per head.

Thirty-three females brought $6,470, and averaged $196.06 per head.

Eight bulls brought $1,010, and averaged $126.25.

Thirty-four grade cows and heifers brought $9,360 and averaged $98.82.

Oliver Johnson, of Tipton, Iowa, the auctioneer, was assisted in the ring by Carl O'Neil of Bridgeport, Wisconsin, H. H. Vergerout of Viroqua and M. P. McNow, of Onalaska. The sale was clerked by George Dudley of West Salem.

Keep a Cost Sheet!

It seems hard to believe, perhaps, that it costs more to do your own laundry than it does to have it done the Modern Semi-finished way, which washes and irons all the bed and table linen, and leaves only a few pieces for you to iron, but it is a fact.

Keep a cost sheet of all the items involved in doing your own washing, figuring in your time at the lowest possible rate, and the result will convince you that we are correct in saying that the Semi-finished Family Service is not only the BEST way, but the CHEAPEST! 14 pounds for $1.00 and 7c for each additional pound.

FAMOUS VIOLINIST TO BE FEATURED IN VAUDEVILLE BILL

Big Array of High Class Offerings for the Sunday Variety Bill at Majesties
 One of vaudeville's best known victims will feature the Majestic bill on Sunday, in the person of Harmon, known to the variety stages of every continent and climate. Aside from his remarkable playing ability Harmon is a most interesting character—a true victim of the wanderlust.
 His classic features and tall commending mien in conjunction with his musical attainments and his knowledge of the world make him much sought after. He has played in every clime, from the southern most limits of Patagonia to the ice bound Arctic circle on the north and from Lisbon, on the West, to Tokio, on the East, a wonderful record as a world traveler.
His adventures, if published, would read like the veriest fiction. Next to his love for travel is his regard for his violin. It always accompanies him and as he remarked "many times has it served to dispel gloomy thoughts and heartaches."
 Harmon's offering is characteristic of the man. While his repertoire is replete with all manner of selections he invariably regulates his program so as to include the best of the classic and most popular of the present day songs. In addition to these he offers a series of really wonderful imitations.
 Another act of merit on the bill is offered by "The Riverside Three."
They are Messrs. Dobson, Nash and Armand, trio of rollicking young singers and comedians. "The Riverside Three" are a smashing hit in their "Chords and Discords." The act carries a special scenic drop depicting a street with a cut out for a Chinese lunatic. As the curtain ascends and one of the trio is the character of a Chinaman is discovered singing a ballad, which by the way, he renders most beautifully, as he finishes off in the distance is heard a drudge voice singing "Mighty Lak a Rose" and as the voice approaches the singer is seen to be a black faced street cleaner, who, as soon as he sees the Chinaman, starts an argument that continues until the third member of the group appears, who settles the disagreement and all three join in presenting a program of popular numbers that bring out the most delightful harmony.

 One of the feature acts of the bill is that of J. C. Nugent, direct from the Minneapolis Orpheum with "vaudeville's most talked of line of talk."
 Other acts to be presented at the matinee and night performances are Howard and Foster, in a singing and talking number, "Art Unique," Lizette, offering a Parisian novelty, and Bassett and Daily in "The Unexpected."
 The Boyerstedt orchestra will contribute a rendition of Suppe's Light Cavalry Overture as an added feature.

BATTLE IS WAGED
IN TWO COURTS OVER A SEWING MACHINE

Jacob and Mary Weigle fought over the possession of a sewing machine valued at $25 in an affidavit in the case, through two courts, the case finally ending in a verdict for Mrs.
Weigle. The Weigles were divorced in 1918. Among their belongings was a sewing machine. The machine was awarded to Mrs. Weigle. She got possession of the machine and Weigle started a replevin action in Justice Hunt's court. Judge Hunt decided in favor of Mrs. Weigle. We-gle then appealed to the circuit court.

Solving the Unemployment Situation

MR. LA CROSSE CITIZEN:
 Are you interested in helping solve the Unemployment Conditions in Your Own City?
 Do you know that Less than Ten Percent of all the Cigars consumed in our city are La Crosse Made Cigars, the other ninety percent being cigars made outside of our city, mostly from eastern factories, owned and controlled by the Tobacco Trust?
 Do their profits do You or Our City any good?
 Do you realize that if the citizens of our city would use only fifty percent of La Crosse Made Cigars that this alone would provide employment for nearly one hundred more men?
 Are you aware that you have Cigar Factories here that make as fine a grade of Cigars as any factories in America?
 Do you realize what one hundred more cigar makers and their families will mean to the business interests of your city?
NOW THEN
 Let the Next Cigar You Buy Be a La Crosse Made Cigar.
 Smoke at least Fifty Per Cent if not 100 Per Cent of La Crosse Made Cigars.
 We recommend for your trial and approval; THE LA FOR-TUNA CIGAR, (2 sizes) AT TEN CENTS. Or if you want something exceptionally fine, THE NEW LA CROSSE CIGAR, RETAIL-ING AT 2 FOR 25 CENTS.
 Furthermore: If either of these brands do not suit you, try some other La Crosse Made Cigar.
FINALE: First—Last—And All Times, Be Loyal to La Crosse Goods.
 Very Respectfully Yours,

action and human interest is promised in "Handcuffs or Kisses."

"Handcuffs or Kisses" was written by Thomas Hodge and appeared first in story form in "Young's Magazine" and is said to be an ideal vehicle for the popular star.

The story tells of the hardships endured by a young girl while "doing time" in a large reformatory. There is a big riot scene in which the inmates overpower the guards and flee the institution and there are many portrayals of the brutal punishment necessarily applied to the unfortunate who are committed there—many of them unjustly.

AT THE MAJESTIC IS TO BE SEEN MARK TWAIN'S FAMOUS CONNECTICUT YANKEE

For those who like Mark Twain, the punch of the Majestic bill for the week will come Thursday, when "The Connecticut Yankee at the Court of King Arthur," with all its gorgeous scenery, will be shown. But there is no less entertainment earlier in the week, with Frank Mayo on Sunday and the dainty, shapely Marie Prevost from Monday to Wednesday. Incidentally, Marie is co-starring with Harry Myers, the identical comedian who makes such a hit as the Yankee in the Mark Twain classic.

Marie plays "the ugly duckling" for the first part of her "Nobody's Fool." But the rest of Barton College came out of her shell—ripped glasses under the influence of inherited wealth. And Marie Prevost was never cuter, more alluring than as the social butterfly in this snappy comedy-drama of romance.

"The Yankee"
Known to the multitude of Mark Twain lovers as "The Yankee," this story is regarded not only as a great classic of American humor, but also as a forceful satire directed against those who sigh for the "good old times." Mark Twain set out to show that the world we live in is the best of all possible worlds, and the time we live in is the best of all possible times.

This he did by taking a typical young American, bright as a new penny, filled with smart, up-to-date ideas, and setting him down in a medieval court, where he could judge for himself whether the knights of old were more courageous than the men of today, and whether life as a whole was more comfortable then than now.

The result is exquisite fantasy and delicious feeling, with a sharply drawn conclusion. "The Yankee" is rated high among Mark Twain's books and certainly it is one of the funniest.

The picture was directed by Emmett J. Flynn, noted for his skill in fidelity to detail. The Yankee is played by Harry C. Myers, a well-known light comedian.

CLASSY FEATURE FILMS TO AID STOCK COMPANY IN ENTERTAINING YOU

In connection with the opening week of Jack Brooks' stock players at the La Crosse there will be screened as classy a program of feature pictures as one could wish, starting with Douglas MacLean Sunday in "Passing Thru." It is a story of a helpful young man who longs to be useful with the usual disastrous result. Here's the story: Billy Barton, a young bank clerk, portrayed by Douglas MacLean, to shield a friend, takes the blame for a bank theft of which he is innocent, and is sentenced to prison. He escapes on his way to the penitentiary and settles down as the hired man on Farmer Harkins' farm. Falling in love with Mary Spivins, he attempts to settle a long-standing quarrel between Harkins and Mary's father, the town banker, and gets into more difficulties. He is eventually vindicated, however, in a climax of total unexpectedness.

"Life"
Based on Thompson Buchanan's successful melodrama, which created a theatrical sensation in New York in 1914, "Life," a William A. Brady production for Paramount, will be shown at the La Crosse theatre, beginning Thursday.

Billy Reid, a young private secretary to a wealthy New York broker, secretly marries his employer's daughter, Ralph Stuyvesant, son of the broker, an adventure, and to gratify her whims he forges his father's name to a check. Tom Burnett, jealous of Billy, with the aid of Ralph, shifts the blame on Billy. At a ball given at the Stuyvesant home, Burnett shoots and kills the broker and circumstances pointing at him, Billy is arrested and convicted of the crime. He is saved from the chair by a ruse through the efforts of his wife and Burnett is brought to justice.

"DEVOTION" AT CASINO
Ever since she was a child Violet Palmer who plays the role of the money-crazed sister in the Associated Producers' production, "Devotion," starring Hazel Dawn, and showing at the Casino today, had an unquenchable desire to go on the stage. Most stage aspirants never realize their ambition, but Miss Palmer made her start in vaudeville when she was a little girl. While Miss Palmer was on the vaudeville stage she gained her education chiefly in Seattle and Spokane. A number of years in stock companies, traveling here and there in musical comedies, and an occasional hit in screen plays, soon brought her to the attention of motion picture producers. To date she has appeared under the banner of almost every producer in the picture business, and the most notable screen productions in which she has appeared are "The Blue Streak" and "Live in Evil."

MAY ALLISON—STRAND
All lovers of the photoplay, with the gift of discriminating pictures of distinction and rare merit from the ordinary, will unite in hailing the announcement that "Big Game," starring May Allison, the popular Metro star, will be at the Strand today and Casino on Monday and Tuesday.

The reason "Big Game" will be enjoyed by everybody without exception is that its appeal is so universal, the story of a man's fight to convince himself that he is no coward, and to save the woman he loves. May Allison has the part of Eleanor Winthrop, the charming wife of "Larry" Winthrop, heir to the millions of the old Boston Winthrops. She believes Larry is the essence of all things manly, but during an adventure in the Northern Canadian woods, to find hidden gold, her conviction tatters when she finds him afraid of Henri Baptiste, a Canadian-French guide. Baptiste is bent on winning Eleanor by force, and the transformation of Larry from

WILL ROGERS—COOPER THEATERS
No less than three dozen yellow crockery mixing bowls and two barrels of flour were used in making one scene in the Will Rogers picture, "Guile of Women," which comes to the Riviera on Wednesday and Thursday and the Strand on Friday and Saturday. The scenes in which Rogers is the role of the changed first mate of the good ship Hilda bursts into the kitchen of his sweetheart and finds that she is playing him false. He all but knocks down the cook as he swings open the door, shatters the mixing bowl in her hands, and spills the flour all over the spotless floor. It took nearly an entire day to make this scene, and between "shots" there were three janitors on hand to wipe up the flour.

"PILGRIMS OF THE NIGHT" AT THE COOPER THEATERS
The average woman would not marry a man with a mysterious past which he refused to divulge. In "Pilgrims of the Night," the J. L. Prohibition Production for Associated Producers, pretty Kathleen Kirkham not only married Lewis J. Stone, but lived happily with him, never attempting to learn why her husband was once in exile. The picture, which comes to the Cooper theaters this week is a rousing melodrama which never permits a moment of rest from the suspense aroused in the first reel. The made lead of the picture had good reason for shrouding himself in mystery and it was not until the police were close upon his trail that he revealed his past to his wife. He had been a criminal—but that's telling too much of the story. Others in the cast are Ruby de Remer, William Mong, Raymond Hatton, Walter McGrath, Frank Leigh.

Those who, in the confidence of superior capacities or attainments, neglect the common maxims of life, should be reminded that nothing will supply the want of prudence, but that negligence and irregularity, long continued will make knowledge useless, wit ridiculous and genius contemptible.—Johnson.

MUSICAL COMEDY OPENS WEEK'S RUN AT RIVIERA TODAY

Billy B. Purl Show of 1922 to Present New Shows; "Foolish Matrons", Feature Film
The Billy B. Purl Show of 1922, direct from a successful run in Milwaukee, will open a week's engagement at the Riviera theater this afternoon. This musical comedy organization, with a cast of 20 persons, many of them stellar attractions in vaudeville, offers a repertoire of musical comedy and excellent vaudeville numbers.

"The Purl Show of 1922 offers excellent entertainment in the way of musical shows," said Manager A. J. Cooper on Saturday. "The company has established a record for the long runs it has made in cities of the mid-west. In the company are such well known vaudeville entertainers as Vyvyan and Kaestner, Post and Weaver, Marie Sweet, James Lawlor, Eddie Cole, Thelma Mortimer and Evans and Cole. Billy Purl is one of the cleverest comedians in musical comedy."

New musical shows will be staged on Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, closing on Sunday, December 11.

In addition to the musical comedy

Sunday, Mr. Cooper will present Marie Taormina's picture, "The Foolish Matrons," adapted from the novel by Booth Tarkenton. In the cast are notable screen actors as Robert Bosworth, Doris May, Mildred Manning, Kathleen Kirkham, Betty Schade, Charles Meredith and Little Frankie Lee.

Harold Lloyd in his comedy, "High and Dizzy," is the last but by no means the least part of the program. The Riviera orchestra will provide special music for the pictures and the musical show.

Monday and Tuesday, besides the musical comedy, the feature picture will be "Pilgrims of the Night," from E. Phillips Oppenheim's novel, "Eus. ers Day." will be shown. Ruby de Remer, Lewis Stone, William Mong and Raymond Hatton are in the cast.

Brooks' Players Start Today
With "Civilian Clothes" as Well as Vodvil, Movies

The new triangular venture of the La Crosse Theatre—stock, movies and vaudeville—gets under way today with "Civilian Clothes," one of the most clever post-war comedy dramas that ever saw Broadway, as the opening test of what the new company, assembled by Jack Brooks, can do.

The story deals with an army captain who married a society girl in France, while she was dazzled by his handsome appearance in uniform, and discovered upon his return to America, after having been reported killed in action, that she was reluctant to own him in his overland civilian clothes. To cure her of her snobbish ways he became a butler in her household and, after several dramatic developments that fell in exactly with his plans, convinced her that clothes don't make the man. The play has been given an unusually handsome dress by the company's own scenic artist—one that will compare very favorably with that brought to this city by the original company when "Civilian Clothes" first went on long after its Broadway success.

On Thursday there will be a complete change of bill at the La Crosse theatre. "Nothing but the Truth" will succeed "Civilian Clothes" as the spoken play, and "Life" will be the new picture feature with new vaudeville offerings between the acts.

Latvian Ingenuity

Many of the new republics which were a by-product of the war, are utilizing all kinds of material for their needs. For example, Latvia prints her stamps on the back of maps, paper used for maps is generally good, so the reverse of the sheet makes an excellent white paper for stamps.

An elephant rarely sleeps more than six hours a day.

In Indian mythology Cama is the god of love and marriage.

ing the sympathetic, affectionate emotion. The background is that of a noisome slum along the London docks; the interiors are slum interiors. But they are charming, even in their poverty. And the photography as one expects, is superb. The pictures have depth and distance, unusual lighting—and in the fog scenes one can only conjecture how they could have been obtained.

And a "Punch"

The "punch" of the picture is a hearty wallop. It comes in a coroner's court, where one brother seeks to take the blame for a murder done by the other, and the guilty one overcomes his cowardice and makes a "clean breast" of it. But it is not for the "big scene" or any of the other thrills that one will remember "Dream Street." It is rather for the elusive, romantic flavor that it has, the beauty and simplicity of it, in short, for its distilled essence of Griffith—because the qualities that lift it far above the ordinary run of "movies" are these peculiar to the great director.

PROMINENT WOMEN GET SIDESHAKING LAUGHS AT TWAIN'S "YANKEE"

Perhaps you can get an idea of the fun in prospect for you in "The Connecticut Yankee at the Court of King Arthur" if you know that it brings nearly gave convulsions to some of a specially invited audience of clubwomen and school teachers who saw a private view of it at the Majestic bridge evening. Being based upon a classic of American literature, it was thought the ladies would be interested. And they were—you tell 'em! They laughed until the tears came, for Mark Twain in the movies is just as funny or maybe more than Mark Twain in cold type. The "Yankee" will open at the Majestic on Thursday. If you miss it you'll regret it.

Three Big Parts

In "Dream Street" there are three big parts, and innumerable smaller ones. All are played with precision, but the roles of the girl and the two brothers are much more. In Carol Dempster there is a new leading woman capable of unsuspected excellence and C. E. Mack who does the weeping brother, gives the screen a characterization of great appeal. To make the role of a weeping sympathetic, even heroic, is a difficult task, indeed, but Mr. Mack takes it measure.

There is beauty in every scene, although there is none of the true flower and pet which have so often served the director's purpose of comment.

New York Evening Mail

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" brought such an uninterrupted gale of mirth that faces were literally weary and sides ached from laughter at the final fade-out. For their mirth-producing comedy, "A Connecticut Yankee" stands alone. The ludicrous situations, of which there is an unbroken succession, are so indescribably humorous that the laughs tumble over one another. It can safely be called one of the greatest comedies ever produced on the screen.

London Times

COURT CIRCULAR

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE, MAY 30

The Princess Royal with Princess Maud visited Queen Alexandra to-day and remained to luncheon.

Her Majesty, accompanied by The Princess Royal with Princess Maud, and the Princess Victoria, was present at the film version of Mark Twain's comedy, "A Yankee at the Court of King Arthur" at the Alhambra Theatre this afternoon.

Her Majesty was attended by the Hon. Charlotte Knollys, the Hon. Lucia White and Colonel Sir Henry Stratfield.

New York Evening Journal

"The cleverest picture yet shown in New York. All day long, the quiet charm of the Twain story has been explored for the film. The audience has seen and the result is an exquisite playhouse."

Los Angeles Express

Retaining all the satire and subtle humor that made Mark Twain the prince of American humorists, embellished by sets so stupendous as to be almost bewildering.

New York Journal of Commerce

For straight, sustained comedy there have been few if any feature films which surpassed it. It is a capital comedy and staged, well acted and is one of the most entertaining pictures of the year.

Birmingham Mercury

All of you are going to laugh at "A Yankee at the Court of King Arthur," adapted from Mark Twain's famous novel. The scenery and costumes are exceptionally magnificent.

New York Sun

"It has some great big scenes, some very effective ensemble and a couple of thrillers. It has an abundance of clever comedy work. Keep the audience in a merry uproar most of the evening."

New York Evening Telegram

William Fox has outdone himself in the production of the much heralded film. The play is stupendous. Hardened moviegoers paused between laughs last night to applaud willingly and spontaneously. The scenes are marvelous. The panorama views, the medieval castles built in the foothills of California, and destroyed specially for the production, all are without equal. William Fox has hit a happy note. New York will take "The Connecticut Yankee" to its bosom and keep him there for a long time.

London Pall Mall Gazette

Magnificent production of Mark Twain's masterpiece. All who desire to see cinematography at its very best make a point of seeing this film. It will not matter whether one has read Mark Twain's book or not, the result will be the same—i.e., two hours' grand full of interest and mirth.

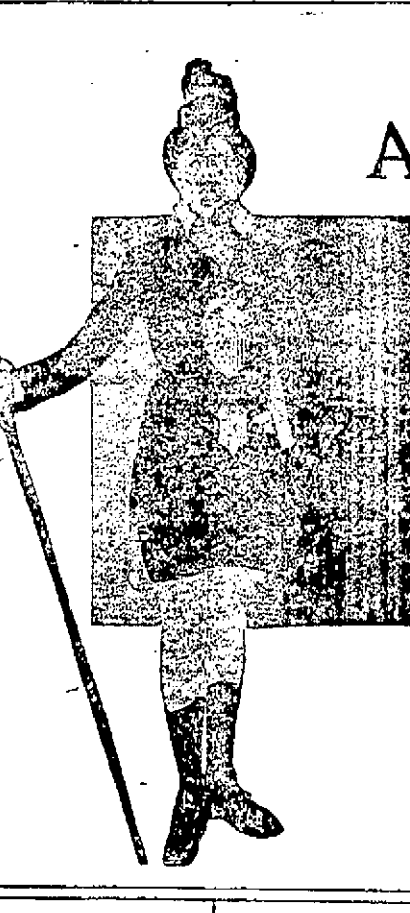

London Daily Graphic

All lovers of Mark Twain—and I should advise all who love a good humorous story to do likewise—will be in their element at the Alhambra. For the cinema season there the picture is "A Yankee at the Court of King Arthur." It is a wonderful production worthy of the book.

Los Angeles Record

"Sitting enthroned among the gods of laughter, Mark Twain must have heard the swelling thunder of the roaring humors in Miller's Theatre last night. 'A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court' triumphed across the screen—a kaleidoscopic mosaic of rich humor, keen satire, breath-taking adventures and touches of rare human emotion. It is a 'Laugh epic' of the screen. Rarely has an audience been held so rapt in the 'thrill scenes' or been so convulsed with laughter at the remarkable gags."

TOSSING QUINTET AT NORMAL RAPIDLY GETTING IN SHAPE

Coach Keeler Narrows Original Squad Down to List of Seventeen Men

THREE "L" MEN AMONG THE CANDIDATES FOR POSITIONS

Other Material of Unusual Basketball Ability Out

Under the direction and coaching of "Tubby" Keeler, La Crosse Normal basketball material is rapidly being whipped into shape for the opening of the season and to battle the University of Wisconsin quintet here on December 23. Coach Keeler issued the call for material simultaneously with the ending of the football season and is already springing a lineup which looks good for the representative quintet.

Coach Keeler has summoned the original squad of nearly forty candidates down to seventeen men all of whom are showing up in first class shape. Three of the squad now reporting, including Roy Jennings and Hittinger, were "L" men of last year. Considering the class of material out for battle on the team it is the opinion of followers that each man will be hard pushed for his position.

Men of unusual basketball ability reporting to Keeler are Hess, St. Paul, and Passover, Illinois. Hess was at one time a member of the fast St. Paul's aggregation, while Passover displays the ability of college caliber tossers.

Barring accidents and injuries the team and Gray is looking to be of equal strength with any representative in the conference.

MARKED INCREASE OF INTEREST IS MEN'S VOLLEY BALL

The church basketball teams in all three divisions, Juniors, Intermediates and seniors got under way this week. The games scheduled for Saturday, December 10, are as follows:

W. & J. DEFEATS "U" OF DETROIT, 14 TO 2, HAS CLEAR RECORD

DETROIT. — Uncovering speed and consistent driving power, Washington and Jefferson's football team defeated the University of Detroit Saturday and kept its string of victories unbroken for the season. The score was 14 to 2. It was the first time this year that Detroit has been beaten.

The visitors showed a dash during the first two periods that carried them to victory.

GIBBONS AND O'DOWD TO GO TEN ROUNDS

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Mike Gibbons and Mike O'Dowd, St. Paul middleweights, will box a ten round, no decision bout here December 10. It was announced Saturday. Each boxer will receive 35 per cent of the gross receipts.

NEBRASKA WESLEYAN IS CONFERENCE CHAMP

LINCOLN, Neb. — Nebraska Wesleyan university won the Nebraska conference intercollegiate football championship in a post season game here Saturday defeating Wayne Normal, seventeen to three.

FAVOR NEW SCHEDULE
Princeton and Yale favor a change in the football schedule with Harvard. The present scheme, which has been in vogue for some time, brings Harvard and Princeton together first, then Princeton and Yale, and finally Yale and Harvard. This gives Harvard a two weeks rest between games, while Yale and Princeton play on successive Saturdays, Princeton and Yale rightly contend there should be a rotation of the schedule each year.

MAY CHANGE COACHES
Failure of a number of the major colleges to have a big year in football has caused rumors to float about that changes will be made in the coaching systems. Dartmouth is already planning for something better. It is intended to have a head coach and two assistants. The absolute failure of Minnesota makes it seem that "Doc" Williams is about through. Early reverses at Michigan brought criticism for Yost. Michigan, however, in the last two games has shown a decided improvement.

COLLINS STILL LEADS
In picking out an all-American basketball team, there is one position that stands out as easy to decide on, second base. Eddie Collins is still the premier at that position, despite over a dozen years of campaigning. Some give Rogers Hornsby the preference over Collins, but it isn't based on sound reasoning. Only at the bat is Hornsby superior to Collins, and then only by a slight margin. In a pinch, Collins is just as dangerous as Hornsby at the plate.

A large number of patients are granted in the United States each year than in any other country.

Badgers Have Five Big Ten Games In '22

October 21 — Indiana at Madison.
November 4 — Minnesota at Minneapolis.

November 25 — Chicago at Chicago.

Misses Zena Cade and Frieda Carlson are Hostesses at Bridge-Luncheon

VIRGOQUA, Wis.—Special—Nearly one hundred ex-service men and their ladies attended the legion banquet and booster day celebration held in Virgoqua on Tuesday. The city was prettily decorated in flags and bunting to represent a gala day. Colonel McCoy of Sparta who had been engaged to address the legion was unable to be present, on account of illness. The banquet was served in the Methodist church parlors by the Women's Relief corp. Preceding the banquet, Attorney C. J. Smith, spoke, and the Virgoqua band gave selections. The soldiers of the Civil war, Spanish American boys, members of the band and ladies were also guests of honor. Mr. W. N. Coffland acted as toastmaster. Mayor A. E. Smith responded to an invitation for an address, speaking briefly. Many ex-service men signed up, as members of the legion. Nearly three hundred people in all were served at the banquet. Working in conjunction with the Women's Relief Corps, in planning the banquet were: C. A. Cutter, Elmer Roman and Paul Dahl.

Mother of Ballooning

A washerwoman was the mother of ballooning and it all started in France about 1780. The washerwoman wished to dry a skirt more rapidly than could be accomplished by air and sunshine, so she rigged it up over a fireplace. This hot air soon dried the cloth and the woman was astonished to see it round out into a ball and float up to the ceiling. A neighbor named Montgolfier saw the strange occurrence and it gave him the idea from which he made the first balloon.

Oiled Axles Stop Friction

Wheels with ordinary axles actually run on films of oil. When the axle is placed under the microscope its surface, which to the eye is smooth, really is covered with depressions and bumps. So, too, with the inside of the hub of the wheel. If the wheel were allowed to run without oil the bumps on the axle and on the hub could rub together and cause friction. This would cause the axle and hub to become heated and expand and stick.

Origin of "Beyond the Pale"

In the time of King John that part of Ireland which was subject to English rule was divided into 12 counties, and the entire district was known as the Pale. From this originated the expression "beyond the pale" meaning outside the law or beyond jurisdiction. Inside the pale, English law was acknowledged and observed, while the land outside was in an almost constant state of anarchy and dissension.

Chief Requisite for Success

Experience shows that success is due less to ability than to zeal. The winner is he that gives himself to his work, body and soul.—Charles Dutton.

PERFECTION The La Crosse Hat

The shaft turning in this housing generates the necessary heat.

Freezing Weather Cannot Stop Buick Oil Circulation

Oil pumps in automobiles sometimes freeze up in very cold weather.

The Buick oil pump is so designed that, should the pump gears be held immovable through freezing, the shaft revolves within the gear. The heat thus generated thaws out the frozen parts, restoring gear action and oil flow to normal.

Only on a Buick will you find this feature.
